Farm Safety and COVID-19

As a farmer and employer, it's up to you to make sure everyone who works and lives on the farm stays safe and healthy. And with COVID-19, that role is as important as ever.

Be a farm safety leader. Keep everyone safe by developing and following a plan to reduce COVID-19 exposure, train farm workers, and talk to your family. Always make sure that any plan follows the latest guidelines of the provincial health authority.

This Canadian Agricultural Safety Week, we're celebrating Safe and Strong Farms. For more information, visit agsafetyweek.ca.
